

LIVING AND NON-LIVING THINGS

Can you remember these key points?

Quiz yourself!

1. Classification is done by _____ the similarities and differences between living and non-living things.
2. Classification helps us see things in an _____ manner making it easier for us to study and understand the _____ around us.
3. In order to survive living things need _____, _____ and _____.
4. All living things _____, that is, they increase in size, change in appearance.
5. Living things reproduce to ensure the _____ of their kind.
6. Respond to _____ around them; e.g. heat, sound, light and touch can affect how living things behave.
7. When they become old, ill, or do not have enough air, water or food, living things _____.
8. _____ things do not need air, food or water.
9. Non-living things do not grow, _____ or respond to _____ around them.
10. Non-living things do not _____.

Available for purchase at www.heuristicscience.com.sg