

YOUR AMAZING BODY

Can you remember these key points?

Quiz yourself!

1. A system is made up of _____ or more parts.
2. Each part has a specific _____ to carry out for the entire system to work.
3. Systems can be man-made or found in _____.
4. A system can be _____ (e.g. a pencil) or complex (e.g. an aeroplane).
5. In a living thing, all parts of its system work together to keep it _____.
6. The _____ system takes air into the body and removes _____ from the body.
7. The _____ system
 - (a) _____ the body
 - (b) gives the body its shape
 - (c) _____ the organs in the body
8. The digestive system
 - (a) breaks down food into _____ substances
 - (b) _____ digested food to be used by the body

Available for purchase at www.heuristicscience.com.sg

YOUR AMAZING BODY

Can you remember these key points?

Quiz yourself!

9. The circulatory system functions this way:

- (a) the heart pumps blood to all parts of the body through _____ vessels
- (b) the blood carries digested food, water, _____ and _____
- (c) the blood carries _____ material (e.g. carbon dioxide) away from different parts of the body

10. The muscular system

- (a) consists of _____ attached to bones
- (b) works with _____ system to enable the body to move.

11. The process where the food we eat is chewed and broken down into simple substances is called _____.

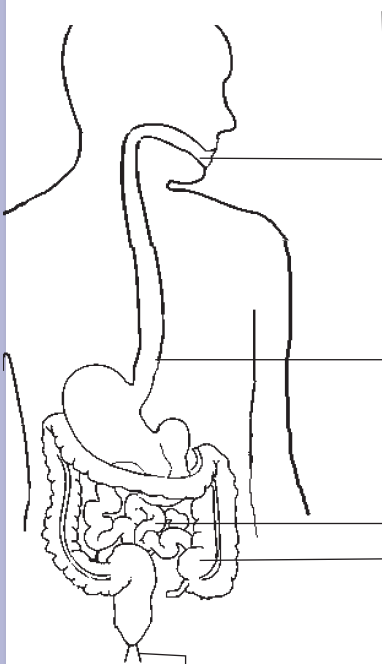

Available for purchase at www.heuristicscience.com.sg

YOUR AMAZING BODY

Can you remember these key points?

11. (a) Digestion begins in the _____.

(b) Teeth grind and cut food into _____ pieces.

(c) Digestive juices in the saliva _____ food to be swallowed.

(d) Food moves down a tube called the _____.

(e) In the small intestines, more digestive juices are added to food to be digested into _____ substances.

(f) In the _____ intestines, water is either absorbed or removed from undigested food.

(g) If the digestive system is infected with _____, water will not be removed effectively from the body

(h) Undigested food is stored in the _____ before it passes out through the _____.

